Public Heritage and the Promise of the Digital

The “promise” of the digital has been a democratization of the very notion of heritage, and a disruption of ideas about ownership, authorship, and authenticity that might have seemed more straightforward in the recent past.

(Jenny Kidd 2018, S.1)

Hoffnungen

Digital experiences are transforming how audiences engage with culture and are driving new forms of cultural participation and practice

(Culture is Digital 2018)

Fragen

But how?

Technology provides an opportunity to turn up the dial on audience engagement, enabling cultural organisations to engage more people and to reach out to new audiences. Technology can also allow for a more meaningful or deeper relationship with audiences, including more interactivity, with users able to curate their own experiences and generate their own content.

Outreach

Making digital heritage about people's life stories

...the heritage people hold within themselves and the new history they can make through telling their own (hi)stories.

(Harriet Purkis, 2017, S.436)

So funktioniert das StadtLabor ...

01

Idee und Kontakt

Am Anfang des StadtLabors steht eine Idee, die Museum und Personen, Gruppen und Initiativen aus Frankfurt gemeinsam entwickeln.

02

Kick-Off Workshop

In einem ersten gemeinsamen Brainstorming entstehen erste Projektideen und -skizzen, es werden Teams gebildet.

03

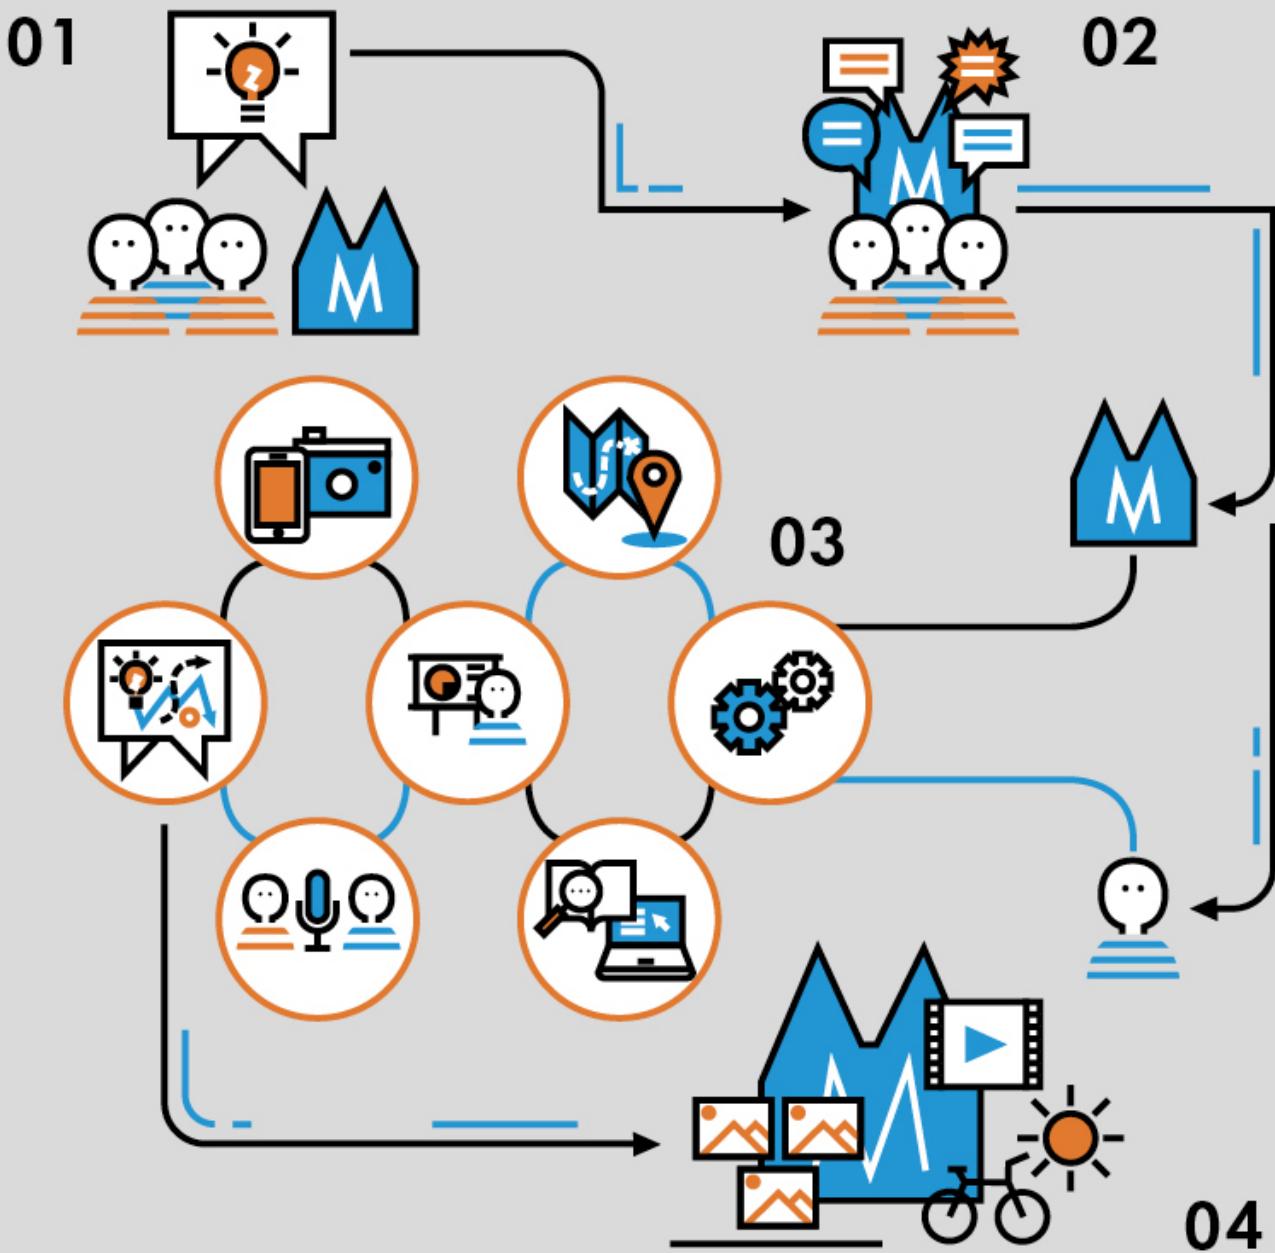

Entwicklung

In Eigenarbeit und gemeinsamen Workshops werden die Projekte weiterentwickelt. Das StadtLabor-Team unterstützt mit kuratorischer und organisatorischer Beratung.

04

Präsentation und Abschluss

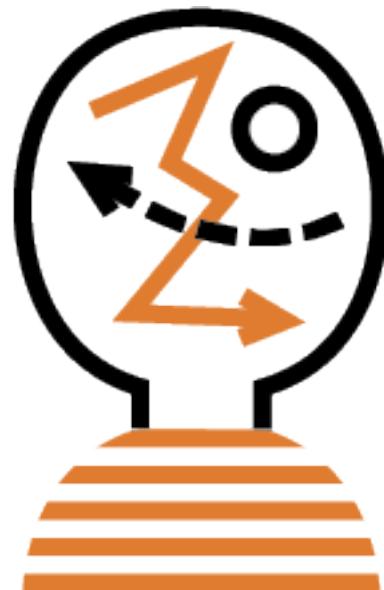

Ausstellungseröffnung, Sommertour-Start, Abschlusspräsentation oder Upload im StadtLabor Digital – die Beiträge sind fertig und werden präsentiert!

Digitale Werkzeuge

Digital technology can offer the means for people to create their own heritage, and digital curating can contribute to making a professional final historical resource such as an exhibition or archive of stories.

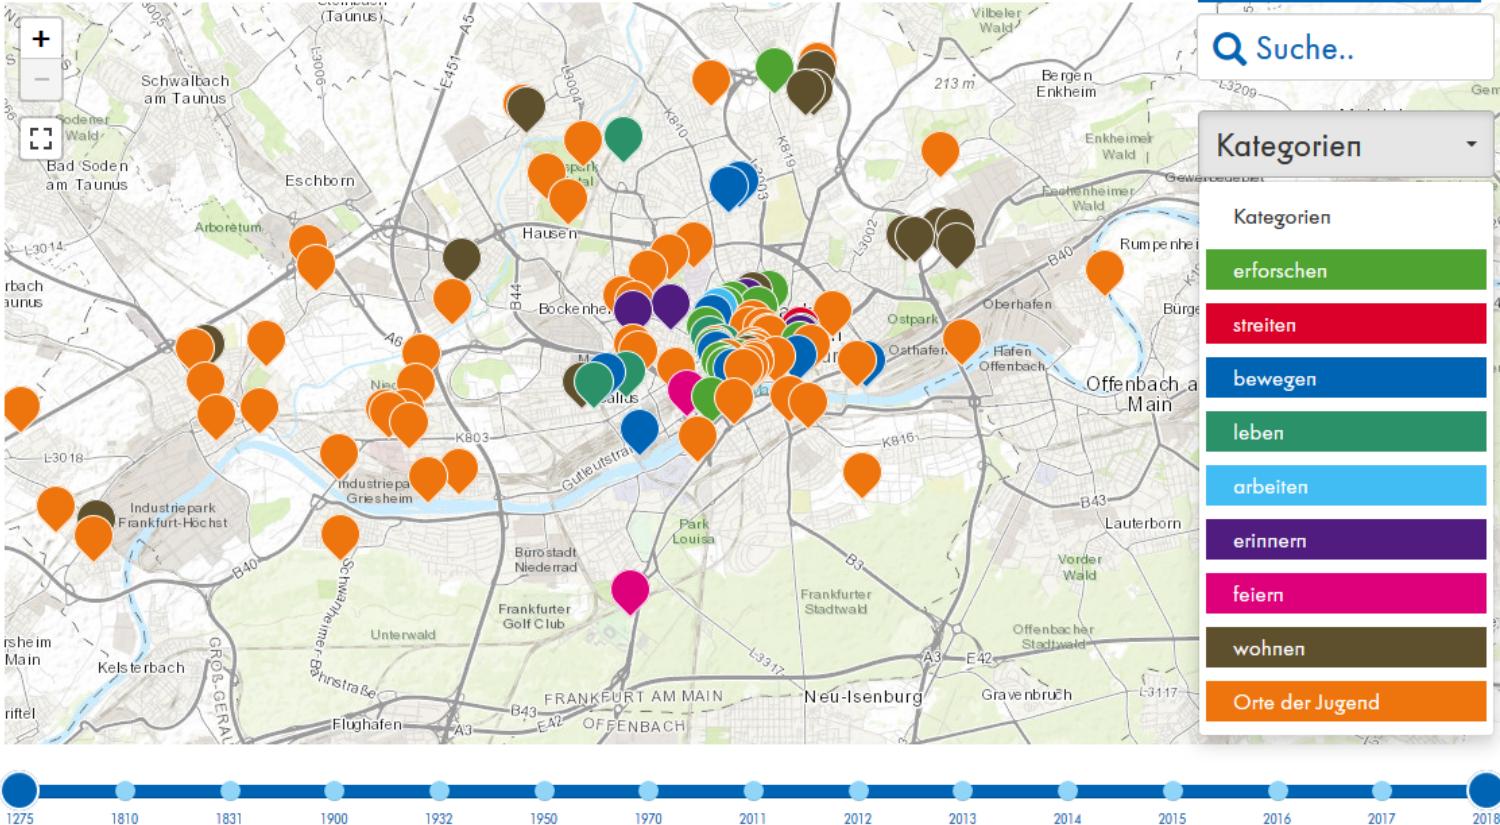

(Harriet Purkis, 2017, S.436)

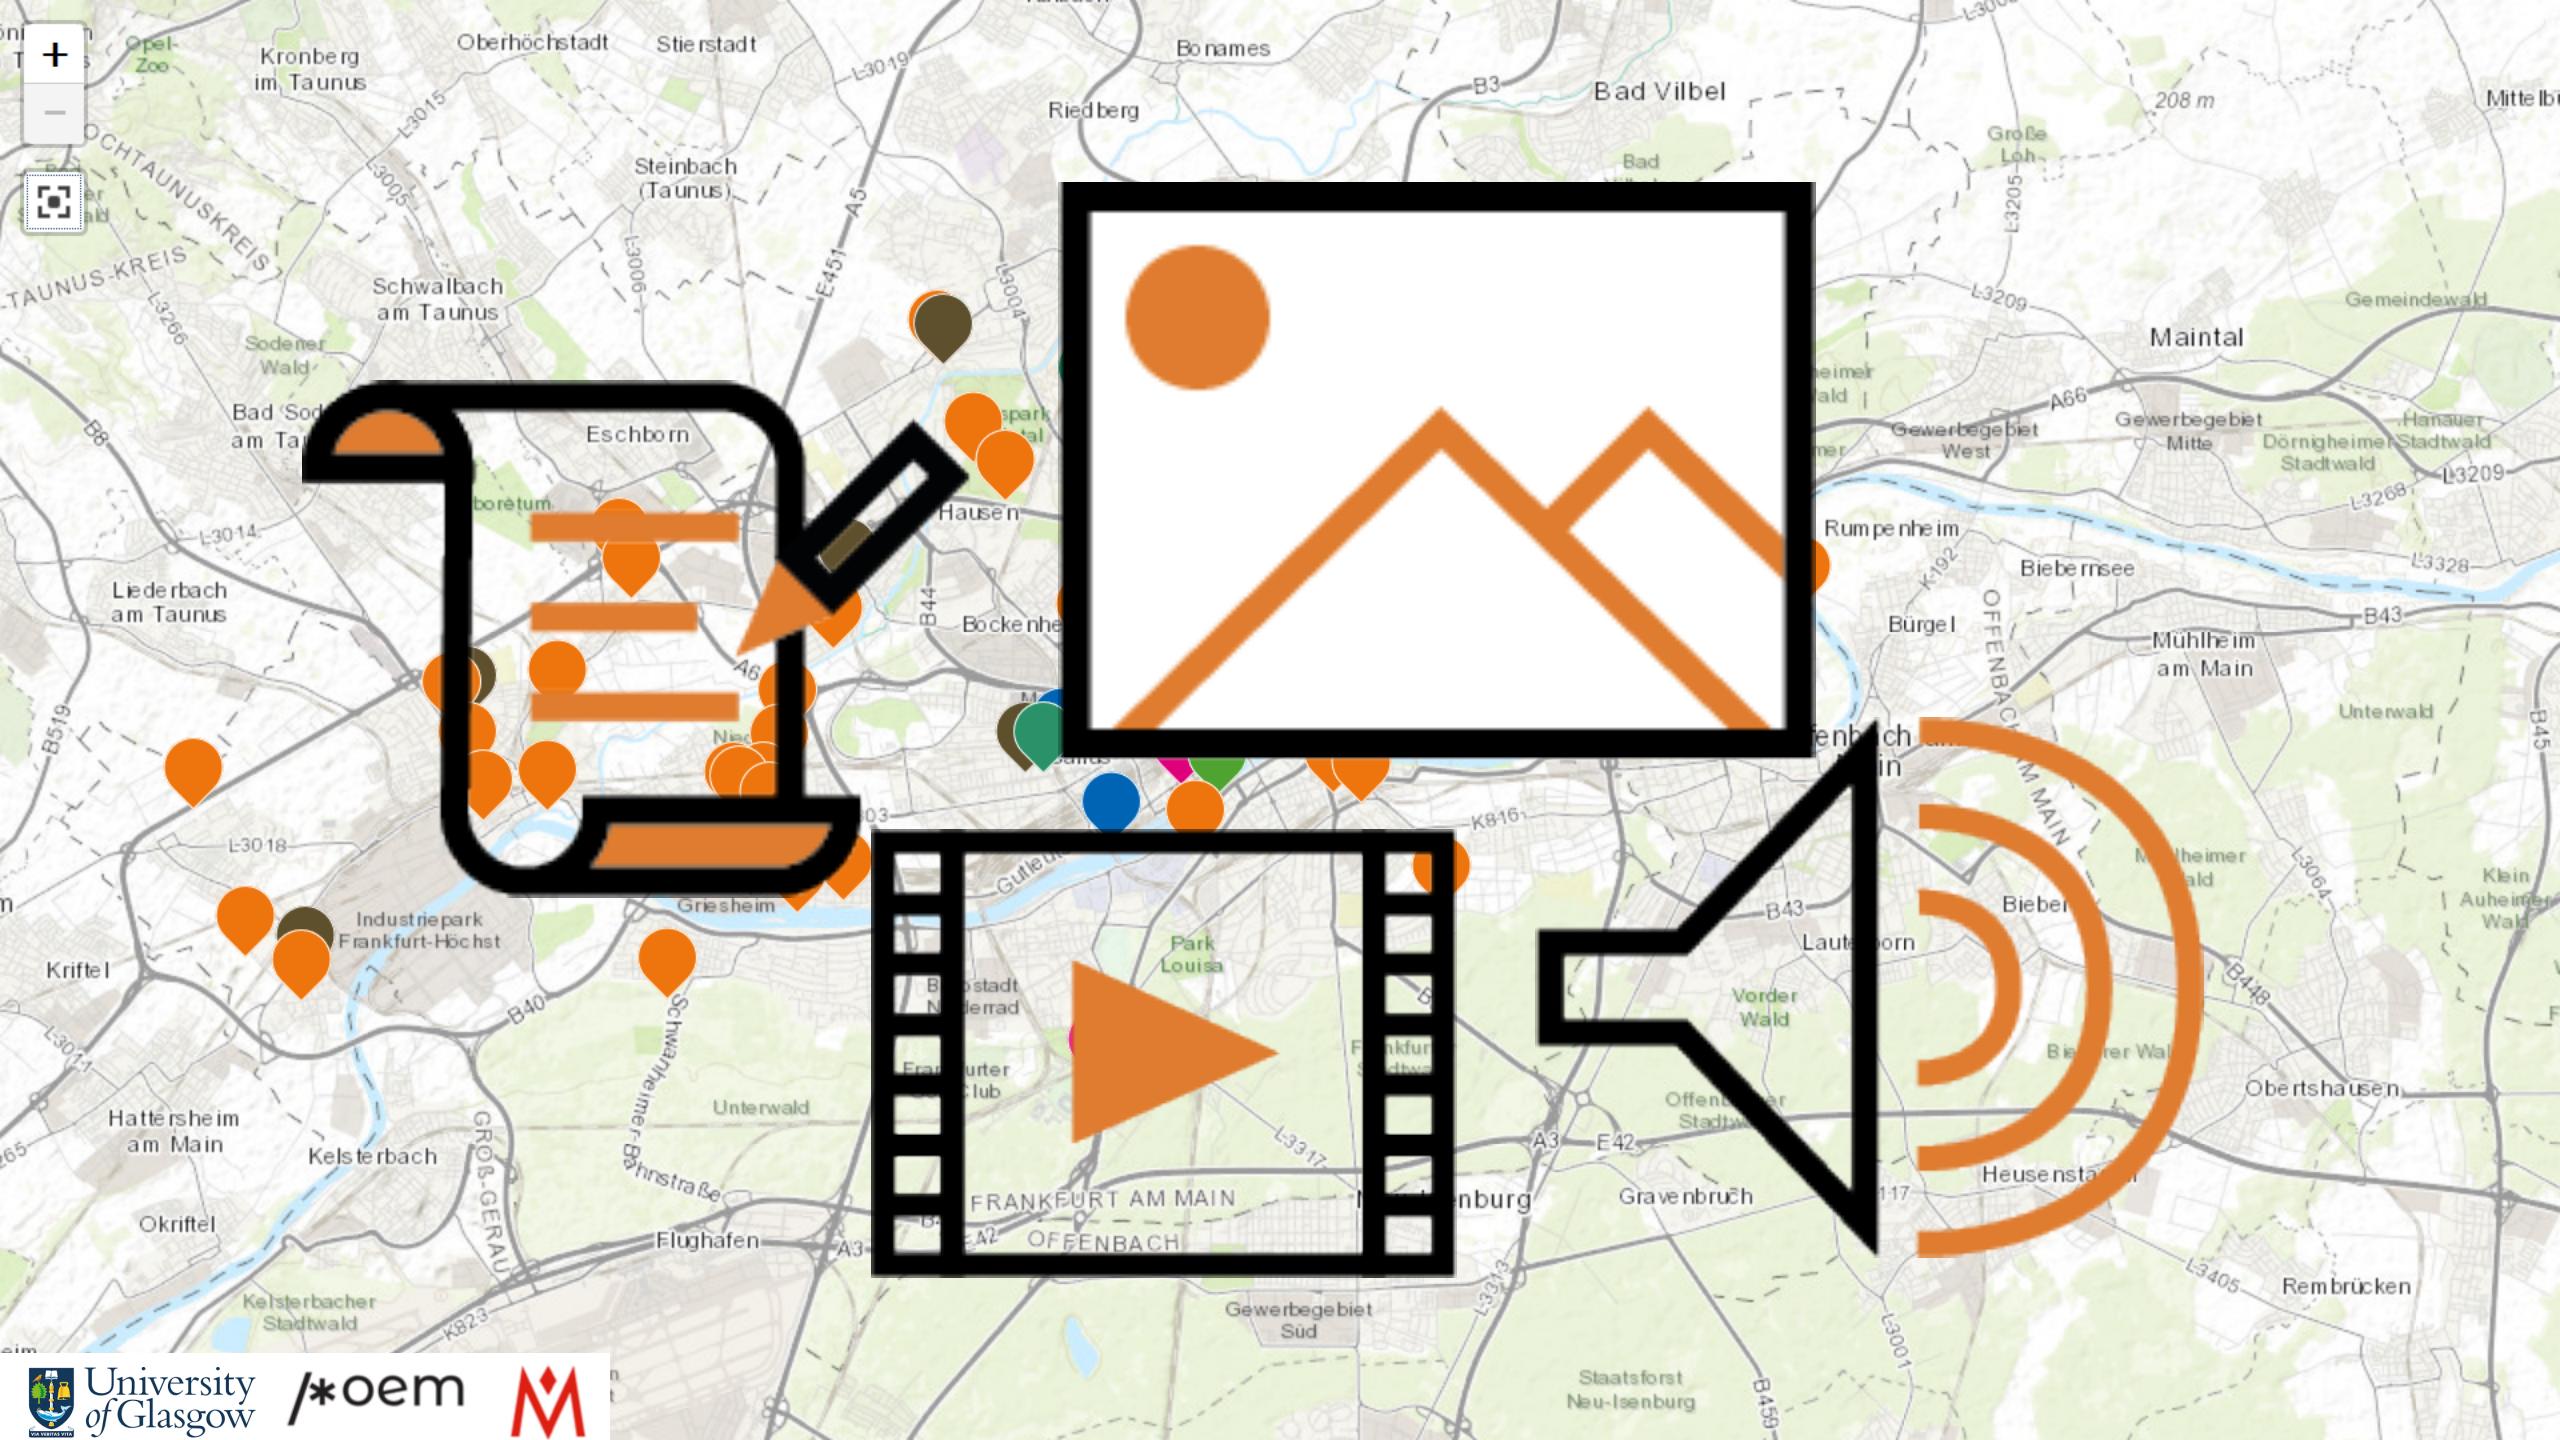

Stadtlabor Digital

Zeig mir Dein Frankfurt! Im StadtLabor erforschen wir gemeinsam mit den Frankfurterinnen und Frankfurtern die Stadt, denn sie sind die Expert/innen für ihre Stadt!

at fostering such an approach, including considering how other concepts of online audience may be productive for engaging audiences.

Museum practitioners wishing to construct community through social media should discuss and articulate what community means for a particular project and how those meanings should inform its design, implementation, and evaluation. A project hoping to appeal to a local audience would enable different participatory features and mechanisms than a project meant
